Property Description

Location: Monte Mayor, Marbella, Costa del Sol, Spain

If you're looking for nature, views, and some of the best qualities money can buy, this house, located in Monte Mayor, may very well be your dream home. When entering the property you will be immediately impressed with the large driveway with space for over five cars, three of which are covered, giving shade all day.

The impressive large front door welcomes you into this unique masterpiece. Walking through the front door you are immediately taken back by some of the most impressive views in the area. The large living room and the large open kitchen has a cozy atmosphere and the big windows of the living room slide back into the walls, giving you the feeling that nature and sea are part of your home. The property's infinity pool gives you the illusion that it is connecting directly to the Mediterranean Sea and its large sunny terraces include a large outdoor kitchen, giving you the opportunity to enjoy al fresco living and dining.

The property also has its own jacuzzi where you can sit and enjoy the views while sipping a glass of champagne. There are also two more guest rooms on the same floor both with en-suite bathrooms and all with their own panoramic sea views. The second floor has a very large master bedroom with a dressing room, an en suite bathroom, again with impressive views. On the same floor, you will find another very large bedroom, again with its own en suite. All bedrooms open onto their own terraces with panoramic sea views.

The lower ground floor is currently open plan giving you endless opportunities to create your own space. There is enough room to add two more extra bedrooms, a cinema room or a gym and spa, if you like nature and modern living, this is your house. This property comes fully furnished!
