Property Description

Location: La Zagaleta, Costa del Sol, Spain

Villa Z'Unica is a modern architectural wonder, nestling in perfect seclusion among the mature trees of the La Zagaleta estate and combining timeless luxury with stunning views. The house is embraced by nature, with trees up to and even integral to its many terraces, where you can relax in the shade, soak up the sun or simply sit back and enjoy the fabulous outlook. The modern design combines bright, clean lines with rustic details and huge glass surfaces that invite the outside in. The driveway hints at hidden wonders that are revealed as soon as you enter and take in the true qualities of this hillside location. The gardens are a fascinating mix of native plants, mature trees and carefully considered features that fit seamlessly into the unspoilt setting, from walkways and water features to quiet corners and private bedroom terraces. The cascading pool deck and waterfall bring an organic, curving contrast to the perfect lines of the house, while the Jacuzzi provides an alternative location to cool off and chill out. A wide selection of eating and entertaining spaces each stands ready to make the best of the perfect climate. The house is flooded with natural light, showing off the impeccable interior finishes, with sleek marble and stone forming open, minimalist spaces that add visual style to homely comfort. Every luxury is on hand, including a sumptuous home cinema, bright games and entertaining room and sauna. Villa Z'Unica is a truly privileged home in the mountains, perfect for entertaining or enjoying the endless privilege and privacy of life on the La Zagaleta estate.
