REFORM PROJECT - LICENCE TO REFURBISH (images relate to planned project) The rays of sunlight that illuminate it nearly all year round are what inspired this spectacular villa's name: Casa del Sol (Sun House). Its golden facade sparkles in the Marbella light, setting off its exquisite Andalusian architecture. The shimmer filters through the windows, bathing in a special glow a whole myriad of spaces designed to dazzle the senses. On the ground floor we find a beautiful Andalusian patio with a fountain welcoming us to this exceptional property. Once inside, we come to a living room with a fireplace, an office, a dining room with enough space for all kinds of get-togethers, a fully equipped kitchen, a pantry, and a laundry room. In the left wing we can find two wonderful bedrooms, both with full, en-suite bathrooms and dressing rooms. Also on the ground floor are two of the villa's many terraces: an enclosed space, designed for those few days when the air is chilly; and the main terrace, with an Andalusian patio and a barbecue area for intimate dinners, family breakfasts, or simply sitting down to read. The upper floor houses the main bedroom. Its high ceilings, adorned with beautiful wooden beams, and its fireplace, are highlights. It also has an entryway, a dressing room, a bathroom with a hydromassage bathtub and shower, and a charming balcony on which to relax. It also offers a fantastic private terrace from which to take in the open views of the natural scenery and the entire urbanization. In the basement we find a garage with space for four vehicles, the machine room, as well as a flexible, unfinished area that can be customised in innumerable ways, adapted to the needs of each resident; for example, adding two bedrooms with their respective bathrooms, a kitchen and a multipurpose room; or, alternatively, converting it into a housekeeper's quarters. In short, Casa del Sol is a villa boasting a unique personality, inspired by the beauty of our land, and with countless corners in which to enjoy the good life. A perfect home to fill with memories.
