This imposing estate called Casa Magda is situated in a sought after residential area of La Zagaleta Golf & Country Club which offers its residents such facilities as equestrian centre, helipad, sporting facilities, two 18 hole golf courses and red carpet services for its residents. It is important to note that the villa is situated just 4 minutes from the south gate. The villa has been redeveloped to the highest standard and designed by renowned architect Maurice Sainz from MS Design and interior designer Nani Palomo. With a great layout that offers a perfect solution to combine family life, guest and staff living on the same property. The house enjoys wonderful views to the sea and mountains, over its stunning landscaped gardens with swimming pool. As you step into the estate, you'll be greeted by an impressive entrance hall boasting high ceilings and a stunning staircase that leads to the upper floor. Adjacent to the entrance, you'll find a guest toilet for the comfort of your visitors and 3 bedrooms, two of them share a cosy TV room, perfect for relaxation and entertainment. There is also an office, a lounge and a separate dining room, both elegantly designed to create an atmosphere of refinement. The well-appointed kitchen and dining area offer a perfect space for culinary creations and casual dining experiences. From the kitchen, a staircase leads down to the lower garden level, with storage, a fully equipped gymnasium, a sauna, an indoor pool and spa area, a shower, a bathroom, a bedroom suite and a wine cellar. The meticulously landscaped garden features enchanting water features that add tranquillity and a touch of serenity to the surroundings. Moving to the upper floor, you'll discover two bedrooms, including the luxurious master bedroom with a spacious dressing area and a beautifully appointed ensuite bathroom. In addition to the main house, this estate offers a separate guest house with four garage spaces for ample parking, two bedrooms, two bathrooms, and a loft-style lounge/kitchen area.
