Sometimes, a name says it all. But at Sunset Paradise, the name is just part of the story: this family home is a delight day and night. It gracefully blends traditional elements – such as wooden beams and floors – with contemporary ambience. High ceilings give the bedrooms and open plan living areas an amazing sense of space. The mature garden is framed by tall trees and garlanded with flowers, while the large heated pool offers panoramic views from the Mediterranean to the mountains. Then, as the sun dips, choose one of the covered terraces for tranquil reflection or a convivial gathering.
